Chapter 1 by BALLER33

Why is Wilt C. not the best nba player of all time?

Chapter 2 by Nathan Reinfurt

Well, he is not the best player of all time because he played in the 1960's. The NBA has changed since then and Chamberlin would be averaging 25 points per game. But the 1 part I like about his game is he could easily dunk because he would have the best vertical if he played in the league today and would have a bigger wingspan than anyone in the NBA.
